

Get

SMART

About Meningitis

Teenagers and College-bound Students...

.....are at increased risk for a rare,
but potentially fatal, form of meningitis.

Immunization is recommended for all adolescents 11-18 years of age.

Get Smart About Meningitis. Learn About Immunization.

Contact the school nurse, your physician or local public health department to learn more about meningococcal meningitis and immunization.